

A good photo of a school, built by personal efforts

Although the bad photo, published on this page, showing the schools and Youth centers problems and the supposed suitable status, we can't overlook the good one, highlighting the national efforts and sense of humanity of the Egypt's citizens, who are helping in times of hardship.

Minister of Education, Dr. Hussein Kamel Bahaa El-Din inaugurates in the few coming days a new Preparatory school, said Dr. Nader Riad, Board Chairman of the company, which paid the expenses of the school construction and furnishing.

The school was built on scientific and typical bases in Kafr Ammar, El-Ayyat, within the Egyptian Association for Development and Childhood plan for establishing 100 schools by personal efforts in the face of the consequences of the earthquake.

Ministry of Education will take over the school to begin the study, pointing out that Egypt's citizens are still good and the interest of Egypt comes always first.
