Dear Dr. Riad,

Very soon, on June 9, the FIFA World Cup 2006 will start in Munich with the opening ceremony at 17.25 hrs and the match Germany vs. Costa Rica at 19.00 hrs. Sponsored by Bavaria Egypt, we will have the opportunity to follow this event on a big screen (4 x 6 m) in the garden of the Goethe Institute in Dokki (transmitted by the TV channel ART in Arabic language). Drinks and dinner will be served during the transmission.

I would very much appreciate it if you could accept this invitation. In addition, please find enclosed some more invitation cards for colleagues and friends of yours. The invitations are valid for two persons each and contain further details regarding the programme.

I am looking forward to seeing you on June 9 in the garden of the Goethe Institut in Dokki, 17 Sh. Hussein Wassef/Midan El-Misaha.

Yours sincerely

Martin Kobler
